Building on the success of the VANDENBULKE Law Firm, we have established VANDENBULKE Corporate & Trust Services to respond to the increasing demand of institutional and professional investors searching for an independent, fully integrated corporate and administrative service for their corporate and investment operations in Luxembourg. VANDENBULKE Corporate & Trust Services shares the core values of our law firm: high responsiveness, unmatched efficiency, and an energetic problem-solving approach. Highly flexible and compact, our team of professionals provides fast-moving, cost-efficient, reliable management services with technologically driven assistance.

+ STREAMLINING FOR EFFICIENCY

VANDENBULKE Corporate & Trust Services allows efficient streamlining of the incorporation process and management of your Luxembourg financial corporations. At each critical stage, our clients enjoy the complete comfort resulting from the on-going guidance provided by VANDENBULKE lawyers and tax advisers. We provide responsive and meticulous assistance in the structuring of investment projects throughout Luxembourg, from their inception to their completion. Our process-streamlining methodology delivers an efficient service to our clients, which translates into more adaptability and flexibility as well as savings in bureaucracy, time, complexity, and management costs. With our support and expertise, you may in confidence entrust the management of your Luxembourg financial companies and draw from them the best tax benefits available.

+ DEVIL IN THE DETAILS

International corporate structures require a timely and ordered implementation, in full accord with their original legal and tax design. Every detail counts. There is no room for improvisation, and each structure deserves careful attention and close monitoring. The more stringent requirements for corporate substance and governance further emphasize the need for highly qualified professionals. VANDENBULKE Corporate & Trust Services is committed to giving each client appropriate, pragmatic assistance in securing the operations of each corporate entity, whether for holding, financing, or IP protection purposes.

+ INSTANT INFORMATION

There is no doubt that instant information is one of the keys for success in effective management. We have clients all over the world. VANDENBULKE Corporate & Trust Services has built up a fully secured web platform, which allows our clients instant access to online information on any of their Luxembourg corporate structures. Corporate clients—by a single click— gain secure access to all their corporate documentation, including articles of incorporation, Trade and Companies Registry extracts, minutes of board and general shareholder meetings, significant executed agreements, financial statements, bank balances, and any other information they wish to consult. Furthermore, cost-sensitive investors may monitor online the management costs of their structures by consulting—on a real-time basis—the details of the work in progress. VANDENBULKE Corporate & Trust Services uses a digital scanning technique and, in a view to meeting the highest standards of quality, has entered into technological partnerships with leading data storage and software companies.

ABOUT VANDENBULKE

VANDENBULKE is a Luxembourg niche law firm providing specialized guidance in Corporate, Finance, and Tax law. The firm was born with the unique ambition to offer responsive, efficient, highly focused legal advice to world-class professionals. VANDENBULKE brings a fresh, independent, and energetic approach in the emerging Luxembourg legal market. The firm specializes in three main practices of law - Corporate, Finance, and Tax. This three-pronged specialization marks our integrated approach to most transactions on which we advise. We pride ourselves on being able to offer clients more senior-level attention than may be available from many of our competitors. In addition, our size limits potential conflicts of interest, allowing us to provide truly independent advice to our clients. Since its creation, VANDENBULKE has been recognized by all international leading guides including Chambers Global and Chambers Europe, Legal 500, World Tax review, and International Tax Review.
